

Current Event Articles

For current event articles that we read over the course of the year, you will be expected to follow a certain format. Below is what you must do.

1. Read the article thoroughly
2. On a sheet of paper, explain in great detail the following:

a. WHO

Who is involved in the article? Why are/is they/he/she involved? How? Explain (1 paragraph)

b. WHAT

What is happening in the article? Why? How? Explain (1 paragraph)

c. WHEN

When is this event taking place? What is the reason for it? Why? Explain (1 paragraph)

d. WHERE

Where is this event happening? Why is the event happening at that location? Explain (1 paragraph)

e. WHY

Why is this event happening? What are the details of the event that are important for readers to know about? (1 paragraph)

To summarize, when you complete the assignment, you should have 5 paragraphs of detailed information about the current event article.